

PRINCIPALS REPORT

- Leadership, stability and what being at Yeo Park Infants School means to me.
- School Plan 2015-2017 presented to P and C. Available on school website. Strategic Direction 3 is an addition that has been important and is one I am particularly pleased with.
- Reports – improved format presented to parents. Feedback on reports to be given in term 3 p and c meeting.
- Skoolbag app? Parents asked about whether they would engage with this.
- Uniforms- the results of a survey taken last year show that the parents would like the jersey pant for girls for winter, the dress is to remain as an option for summer with the other option being the jersey short pants and that the winter tunic would phase out as an option for winter.
- A survey of parent interests for learning in regard to curriculum and teaching will come in term 3

Apart from the school plan there has been a lot that has been developed in the past three weeks;

- Newsletter changes to format and universal branding
- Enrolments – pre-school information night for week 10 of term 2 and brochure developed
- CENTRAL – improved communication, better data collection, improved access to important information on each child and hand over to next teacher
- New Professional direction framework for staff
- Schools Excellence Framework - training
- TEN – Di has received training and will be training staff this is early numeracy skills
- New syllabus implementation – history

- Targeting technology and the use of technology to redefine learning – leading this across the community of schools
- Uniforms – findings of surveys.
